I hope everyone enjoyed a fun and relaxing fall break. We have a busy few weeks ahead of us before Thanksgiving break. Please make sure to check the Special notes on the bottom to see some of the upcoming important events.

Our weekly words this week are all about the blends “sh” “th” and “ng”. In English we will be reviewing sentence structure and understanding what a common noun and proper noun are.

In math, we will begin subtraction with numbers up to 20 .

In socials studies we will be comparing our lives to those of children in history.

A sign up sheet went home to help with our Halloween STEM and character Day Party. Please take a look and see if you can help out with materials or time for this event.

Thank you for all that you do!
